

Michelle Thaug

West Village

West Village Zip Codes:

10011, 10014

33, 204 people live in the West Village. However, the demographics of the West Village are not very diverse. About 83% of the neighborhood is white, 7% Hispanic, 5% Asian, 2% African American, and the rest are multiracial. Homes in this area tend to be on the pricier side, which means that families that live here have a very high household income. According to niche.com, the median household income is $138,356, compared to the national median of $62,843. The neighborhood has an even split between the percentage of males and females, and the neighborhood comprises mainly adults 25+ years old. The neighborhood is mainly composed of residential homes, trademark brownstone architecture, and small shops and restaurants. It is known for its angled streets, arts scene, and role during the LGBTQ+ rights movement, where the Stonewall Riots took place. A very well known landmark in this area is Washington Square Park, where people can go to hang out, eat, enjoy the iconic fountain, and more.